

The Fourcurean-Price Co. HOUSEWARE DEPARTMENT.

A GLIMPSE OF THE COMING FASHIONS.

Spring is lining up her forces—ready to make another grand change. To be in touch with the creating genuineness was never so important—and an inspection of our stock will show our many advantages in procuring the best. To-morrow will be a day of interest to early spring purchasers—new goods, new styles, and new prices in every department.

Silks.

It isn't luck that gives us the best showing in Silks always. It is design. We buy a stock as you buy a yard—carefully, searching for the best. We have made elaborate preparations for the spring. The assortment that is here is a most unique one. Every pattern is a type of fashion—largely special designs that don't get into the open market.

You might think we would ask a high price for them. It is notable that we are at the other extreme. How low—you can find out by comparison.
